The Upper Potomac River Water Trail Map Set

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources is pleased to announce the availability of a new set of water trail maps depicting the upper portion of the Potomac River, The Potomac River Water Trail and the C&O Canal: Shepherdstown, WVa. to Potomac Park, Md. The five-map set is an invaluable resource to any kayaker, canoeist, boater or outdoor enthusiast planning a trip along this stretch of the Potomac River. The maps are printed on waterproof, tear-proof paper and cover approximately 115 miles of the Potomac River and C&O Canal from Shepherdstown, West Virginia, upriver to Potomac Park, just outside of Cumberland, Maryland. The maps highlight access points in both Maryland and West Virginia and include information on support facilities such as restrooms, camping and fishing sites, as well as picnic and parking areas. Additional information on cultural and historical points of interest, paddling and boating safety tips, hazardous river levels, "Leave No Trace" ethics, and emergency contact information are also included.

This map set was developed as a joint project between the Maryland Department of Natural Resources (MD DNR), the National Park Service, the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin (ICPRB), and the West Virginia Division of Natural Resources. The Potomac River Water Trail and the C&O Canal: Shepherdstown WVa. to Potomac Park, Md. map set continues and complements information represented on two earlier Potomac Water Trail publications: The Potomac River and the C&O Canal: Georgetown to Opequon Creek (ICPRB, 1998) and The Potomac River Water Trail: DC to the Chesapeake Bay (MD DNR and VA Department of Conservation and Recreation, 2001).
